1. Claims 31-49 are allowed.
2. Applicant's election with traverse of the method claims in the reply filed on 2-22-05 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that there is no serious burden imposed upon the examiner by requiring the examiner to examine both the method claims, and the composition claims. Thus, the restriction requirement by the examiner cannot not be made on this basis. This is not found persuasive because there is a serious burden imposed upon the examiner by requiring the examiner to examine both the method claims, and the composition claims. The search required for the composition claims require that class 252 be searched which is not a required search for the method claims. Similarly, the search required for the method claims requires that class 216, class 134, and class 438 be searched which is not a required search for the composition claims. Thus, requiring the examiner to search both the method claims, and the composition claims in this application imposes a serious burden upon the examiner.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

3. This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters:

-Cancel claims 50-51 which were non-elected with traverse due to a previous restriction requirement imposed upon the applicant by the examiner.

Prosecution on the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.
